Market Depressed by News of a Big English Bank Failure.

The Bank Statement Caused Slight Rallies.

Increase of $3,947,650 in Reserve During the Week-

Plate was announced from London this morn-continues until next Thursday. ing. Its liabilities are unknown. Its suspension was due to inability to realize on Argentine securities. It had a capital of $21,500,000, in 20-share lots, of which £850,-000 was paid up. Its reserve was £425,000. The bank paid 10 per cent. dividends, the last one having been paid June 10. July 4 the stock sold at £8 9s. The suspension of the bank hurt the stock market here and there was a general pressure to sell, prices yielding  $t_4$  to  $1t_4$  per cent. Lackswanns, the Grangers, Wheeling & Lake Erie, Union Pacific and Louisville & Nashville were among the weakest stocks. East Tennessee first preferred broke 4, to 44, and Edison General Electric 3, to 101. The gain in the local bank reserves, however, checked the declining tendency near the close, and a rally of 14 to 34 per cent. ensued. The sales at the New York Stock Exchange were 67,600 shares of listed stocks and 20, 000 ounces of silver.

A director of the Ohio & Mississippi says here is no truth in the reports of a receiverhip for that property.

The bank statement was favorable, showing an increase of $3.047.050 in reserve

The tank statement was favorable, show-ing an increase of $3.947.500 in reserve, which brings the surplus up to $18.480.075 above the 25 per cent, required by law. The comparative figures for the past two weeks are annexed:

woman, with scant locks as white as snow, but she made things lively early this morning ofty.

Following is the new distribution as in the four-story tenement at 515 Washing-compared with that of last year: ton street, where she lives.

North began the fun by emptying a pan of water out of her second-floor window upon the devoted hear of Mrs. Julia Brogan, of the basement, who stood in the area.

Then she pitched a pan of ashes downstairs upon Mrs. Byan, the housekeeper, as she was serubing the hall floor on her knees.

Then she chased Mrs. Mary Ann Hines out of the house with a broken stair post.

Policeman Thomas White chased Norah in again, with a warning, but ien minutes later, at 7.4%, Mary Ann and her three bathes were spain.

When White essayed to arrest the old woman she leaded out of a rear window, falling twenty feet, breaking a leg in two places and qualifying herself for a cot in St. Vincent's itospital.

Lest time she was there she leaped out of a window in her night-dress, and got a month on the faland for it.

A case of justifiable clubbing by a policeman was brought to the attention of Justice Goetting in the Lee Avenus Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning.

Mamie Cassidy, a pretty sixteen-year-old brunette, who lives at 30 Stockton street, charged John Stenna, a truckman, with attempting to assauit her.

Mamie sasuit her.

Mamie sald that about 8 o'clock last evening she, with Margle McCormick and her sisletter, said it contained only general instruc-tions, and as the removal of employees will be left entirely in the discretion of the Collector nothing definite could be given out until he returned Monday.

The Secretary's order says that the annual expenses of collecting customs at this prot must be cut down at least $86,450.

The salaries of part of the force of the Cus-tom. House will be transferred to the roll of the Custodian of Bullbings, amounting to about $15,000.

The plan under consideration involves the dismissal of seventy-five cierks and laborers, a reduction in the salaries of eleven chiefs of subordinate departments and the abolition of seven offices which are now vacant. Among the latter are included one $2,000 clerkship and one $1,000 clerkship in the

It is stated that special Agents Wilbur and Chance recommended a much more extensive reduction in the staff, but collector Erbards protested so attenuously, insisting that it would seriously cripple the service, that sees return foster finally agrees to a comprehense, with the result already stated.

About one-quarter of the employees at the Custom House at the present time are bemocrats, and they feel the most shary. All sorts of rumors are afloat as to those marzed for the headsman.

Among those mentioned in connection with the impending shake-up, either for removal or a reduction in salary, are hepity collector Burr, at the appraiser's stores, and beputy Charles M. Fenner, his assistant.

While reducing the force of the Collector, secretary Foster has sutherized the Surveyor of the Port to increase his staff. As many and as many weighers at 82 a day, and as many weighers at 82 a
